

French Seize Important Port From Chinese

SAIGON, Indochina (UP)—French union forces today seized the important Red port of Thy Hoa, launching what spokesmen described as "the biggest offensive operation since the beginning of the Indochina war."

An official French announcement said some 2,000 seaborne French Union commandos stormed ashore yesterday and captured the Annamite coastal citadel from its communist defenders.

A spokesman described the action as the opening move in a massive French Union drive to clear the Red-Vietnamese rebellion from all Southern Indochina. The new offensive, which will be backed by the new American-financed Vietnamese National Army, will require several months, he said.

Submarine Commander Gen. Henri Navarre's "Operation Atlanta" opened the near southernmost extremity of the 260-mile coastline that the Communists have infiltrated and dominated since 1946.

An armored spearhead pushed north to join forces with the seaborne raiders and North African paratroopers at Thy Hoa, 240 miles northeast of Saigon.

Woman Freed of Murder That Wasn't

BY ED OLSEN
CARSON CITY, Nev., (AP)—Dark-haired Emma Jo Johnson is "not guilty of anyone" for sending her husband to prison for murder—a murder which the Nevada Board of Pardons now says never was committed.

Emma Jo, 35, was ordered freed yesterday after 2 years 8 months and 23 days behind bars as a result of a year-long $15,000 investigation by a jury of inquiry.

Arthur Stanley Gardner and others on the board accepted doctors' findings that Mrs. Jo Jones, 72, of Las Vegas, died of a brain tumor, not as a result of an alleged attack by Emma Jo.

Emma Jo's troubles started in 1947, when she called the doctor to her home.

She told him she had a "brain tumor" and he called her "Jo Jones," for "Jo Jones" was the name of the doctor's wife.

RAISING THE DOME—At the first glance, one would think that this 136-foot boom was lifting the dome of the Pennsylvania state capital building at Harrisburg. Actually the giant boom was just lowering ventilating units in a project replacing utility lines in the building.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Batesville-Floral area, no few sales to establish a market. Weather conditions in the area have closed most roads to truck movement of chickens.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads and aircraft provided almost the sole prop under the stock market today. Gains ran to between 1 and 3 points in those two divisions while elsewhere in the list changes were mostly in the smaller fractions.

Douglas Aircraft was by far the best performer with a gain of between 3 and 4 points at time. It was up 8 point yesterday.

Railroads, which were neglected yesterday, staged a comeback today with the gains well distributed. There were no major divisions of the market unduly depressed.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

CHICAGO (AP)—Soybeans from the 2883 crop sold at the best price they have yet reached on the Board of Trade today.

In an active trade old crop soybeans were up as much as 4 cents at one time while the November contracts, on which 1954 soybeans will be available for delivery, moved slightly over.

The July, September and December wheat contracts, on which 1954 wheat may be delivered, also showed new seasonal highs. Their gains were as large as those in grain, however.

Wheat of old crop 1-1/2 higher, 1954 crop 1-1/2 lower to 1-1/2.

NEW YORK COTTON
NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures drifted lower today on trade selling and scattered profit taking. Offerings were absorbed through buying for mill account and against export business.

Late afternoon prices were 35 cents a bale lower to 5 cents higher than the previous close. March 33.52, May 33.75 and July 33.76.

News Briefs
PINE BLUFF (UP)—The state highway department has issued a work order on a $299,239 roadway and bridge project in Mississippi county.

The project includes 1,399 miles of blacktopping, with grading and drainage, and five bridges on the Manila-Athelston road, state Highway 77. The contract was awarded last December to E. E. Barber Construction Company, Fort Smith. Resident Engineer E. W. Smith will supervise the work.

PINE BLUFF (UP)—Funeral services for John D. Rust, philanthropist and inventor of the Rust mechanical cotton picker, were to be held here this afternoon.

Rust, head of the John Rust foundation, died here Wednesday of a heart attack. He was noted for his philanthropies which included setting up of scholarships at the University of Arkansas and at Arkansas AM & N college here.

Services were to be held in Robinson Chapel here at 2:30 p.m. today with Dr. Marshall wing of the First Congregational Church of Memphis, Tenn., officiating.

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Non-farm employment in the Little Rock Metropolitan area reached an alltime high, 71,550 workers, in December, 1952, it was reported today.

The figures were reported by Manager Charles W. Kirby of the local office of the Arkansas Employment Security Division. Kirby said December employment was 1,100 more than the previous November, and 350 higher than in December, 1952.

Kirby said some decline is expected this month, following the normal employment pattern but the anticipated decrease cannot be considered as "alarming."

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—Arkansas hatcheries and dealers placed 1,108,000 broiler chicks with producers in the northwest area during the week ended last Saturday.

The state crop reporting service said the figure represented a 3 per cent increase over the previous week.

Of the total placements 712,000 chicks were hatched in the area and 396,000 came from other states. There were also 180,000 chicks shipped out of the area.

Eggs set during the week were up 8 per cent over the previous week, the agency said.

sounded a distant "clippity-clop-clop." It grew louder. Then around the corner came a small elderly horse, driven by a small elderly man sitting atop a small elderly ice wagon shaded by a faded small elderly beach umbrella.

As the little dark corral animal and the creaking vehicle passed beneath our window, Frances set the clock and said:

"That's the 6 o'clock horse. Haven't you heard him before? He's never more than a minute or two off any morning."

"He makes such a cute sound. And he looks so patient and nice. Sometimes that old man leans over and hits him with a little stick, but the 6 o'clock horse doesn't pay any attention to him. He always goes at just that same pace."

"Listen to him."

"Clippity—clop—clop, clippity-clop-clop," rang the hoofs of the 6 o'clock horse.

After that I heard him many a morning. In New York you aren't allowed to keep even a Shetland pony in an apartment; you have to fall in love with other people's horses. And the 6 o'clock horse became a pleasant part of our lives.

In summer he hauled ice, in winter wood. But every day he was punctual.

"He is just as punctual going back in the evenings," said Frances. "He comes by at exactly 5:30. I wish I had married a man as punctual as that little horse."

"Clippity-clop-clop"—through the years, through shower and sunshine, through fog and mist and snow. Wagon and man grew older, and so did the 6 o'clock horse. But he trotted at the same steady pace—"clippity-clop-clop."

One night I made plans to get up early the next morning and take down some carrots and sugar lumps for the 6 o'clock horse. But I overslept, and awoke to hear his hoofbeats already fading away, and somehow after that I never managed to translate my good intention into a deed.

The other morning I awakened early and lazily watched the clock's hand crawl past 6 o'clock. No "clippity-clop-clop." At 6:15 I got up and went to the window and looked down. The street was bare in the cold dawn. No horse I turned and saw Frances looking at me.

"I wondered when you'd miss him," she said. "He hasn't been by for weeks."

"What happened?"

"Nobody in the neighborhood knows," said Frances. "They all three were 65 old and looked 75. Maybe the wagon just fell to pieces, or the old man died, or the little horse fell down and couldn't get up."

A brightness left the morning and every morning since then. There was such a brightness about that steady "clippity-clop-clop" as if it were like losing something you never owned but felt in your heart belonged to you, a feeling you often have about small things that give a stability to your life in a inches, fell at Wing in western Arkansas. Other rainfalls included 1.29 inches at Camden; 1.21 inches at Pine Bluff; and 1.11 inches at Arkadelphia. The bureau said nearly every point in the state also reported rain yesterday preceding snow of sleet.

State Police Headquarters at Little Rock said all highways in the state were iced over and hazardous.

Highway 71, from Texarkana north to Fayetteville and beyond was closed and highway 64 through Clarksville was reported dangerous and almost impassible even to cars with chains.

The State Police said Highway 71 from Texarkana north to Fayetteville was closed. However, the state Highway Department office at Fort Smith said the road was open but virtually impassible with out chains.

Police said Highways 65, 67, 70, and 167 all were iced over and extremely dangerous.

The State Highway Department and traffic is moving slowly over most of the highways. Road crews were reported working to clear the highways.

The department said a thin covering of snow over the ice is making driving dangerous. However, a department spokesman said that in many sections the sun was reported shining and some measure of relief is expected.

The Plains States, which were colder yesterday than the frozen tundra north of the Arctic circle, began to warm up today as a singing cold wave passed into the East and deep South.

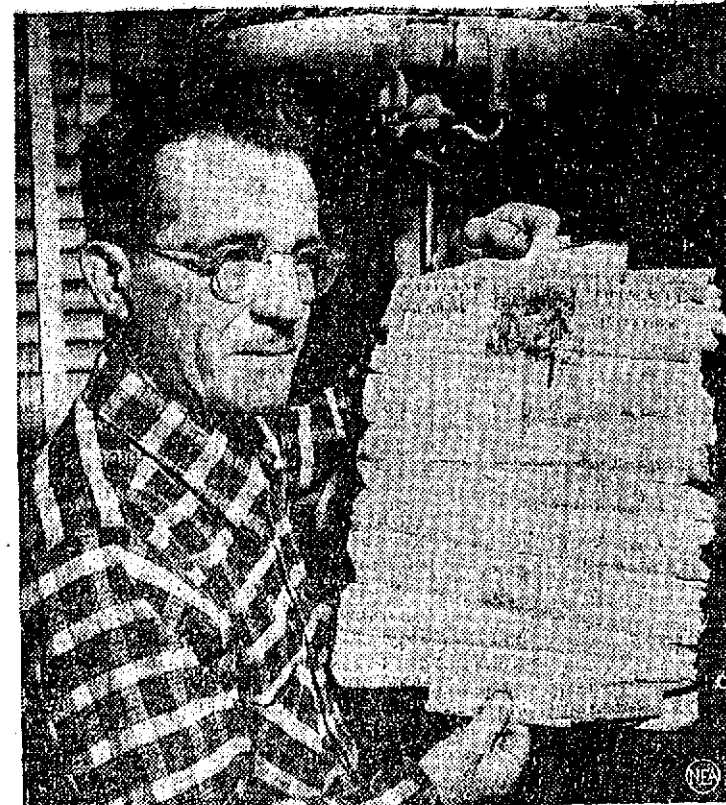

Meanwhile, up to seven inches of snow fell in a storm area centered in southern Missouri, Arkansas, eastern Oklahoma and southwest Iowa, and up to five inches of snow were forecast for lower Illinois and Indiana.

A special weather bulletin warned that heavy snows were likely in eastern Pennsylvania and southeastern New York today and tonight. Rain, freezing drizzle and snow flurries were already common over much of the South, Ohio Valley and Great Lakes areas.

The New York City area, which recently was buried by almost 10 inches of snow, was warned to expect two-to-four inches. The Weather Bureau said a "real snowfall" could hit New York if warm southern air collided with the cold front over the city.

International Falls, Minn., reported a temperature of 21 degrees below zero early today. Bismarck, N. D. had 13 below and Billings big city.

This is my carrot... these my humps of sugar... to the 6 o'clock horse... given, as many things in this world are, too late... and I think of this as I lie in my bed in the morning, listening for "clippity-clop-clop" and hear only the wail of a siren, the blank of a garbage can, the snore of the man next door.

WASHINGTON BELIEVED IT PAID TO ADVERTISE—News from 1773 is what John Gambiere, of Cleveland, Ohio, is looking at, and this copy of the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser is an extraordinary "find." The issue, dated July 15, 1773, carries an ad written by George Washington. It is said that he had 20,000 acres of land on the Ohio and Grand Kanawha rivers and that he would listen to any proposal for leasing them "upon moderate terms, allowing a certain number of years rent 'free.'" The paper, yellow and brittle, was found along with other old papers in a trash barrel. It has four pages, still very readable, except for the frayed edges.

Red Basin Included in Flood Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—A request for $1,030,000 for the Southwestern Power Administration for the year beginning July 1 was included in President Eisenhower's budget submitted to Congress today.

The money would be for operation and maintenance of power transmission facilities and marketing of power.

Congress appropriated $1,560,000 for the agency for the current year.

The budget said the agency plans to complete Carthage-Springfield-Mansfield transmission line facilities this year. The 1955 program calls for construction to connect new customers to existing system and contemplates completion of the agency's participation in a survey of the Arkansas-White and Red River basins.

British Plane Sets Record

HATFIELD, England (UP)—A new model of Britain's Comet jet liner flew non-stop from Hatfield to Khartoum in the Sudan today—3,080 miles in six hours and 19 minutes at an average 481 miles an hour.

The old record was 14 hours. The shiny, four-jet Comet II carried test pilot for the De Havilland Aircraft Company, five other crewmen and seven company officials and observers—13 in all.

"We're not superstitious," Cunningham grinned. He added that he expects to make the trip in about six and a half hours, slashing the existing record of 14 hours by more than half.

The big plane is the first Comet II to come off the De Havilland assembly line. An earlier model, the Comet I, has been grounded pending investigation of a crash that killed 35 persons two weeks ago—the fourth Comet crash in 15 months.

Student Group Says Russians Are Friendly

NEW ORK.—(UP)—Seven College newspaper editors who toured the Soviet Union for three weeks found the Russian people outwardly friendly toward Americans although they are surrounded by anti-Americans propaganda posters.

he seven editors returned by plane from Paris late yesterday and held a press conference at Idlewild international airport. They planned to continue to their respective schools tomorrow.

Dave Barney, 27, of Reed College at Portland, Ore., said he saw numerous posters in factories and schools that clearly embodied anti-American propaganda. Students told him the posters were not directed against "the American people" but against "Big business, capitalists and the corrupt press."

The editors, whose trip cost them $1,500 each, said they were treated courteously throughout their 5,000-mile journey to principal Russian cities.

Richard Elden, 20, of Chicago, a student at Northwestern University, said the group attended a New Year's party at the Kremlin in Moscow. They requested an interview with Premier Georgi Malenkov but he sent them a personal message that he was "terribly busy" and couldn't see them.

Gregory Shuker, 21, of Charleston, W. Va., another Northwestern student said he got a shave haircut, shampoo and massage for $1 in a barber shop at Kiev.

The editors were denied a request to visit Sevastopol because it is a naval base and a "closed area," Shuker said. They also were not permitted to visit any of the Baltic states.

Richard E. Ward, 20, of New Rochelle, N.Y., a Chicago university student, noted that Russian college students do not follow the American Custom of "Dating" young men and women usually go around in separate groups and do not have "Dates" unless they are engaged to be married.

Others who made the trip were William C. Ives, 20, of Alledo, Ill., and Craig E. Lovell, 21, of Galesburg; and Dean Schoellkopf, of St. Cloud, Minn., a student at the University of Minnesota.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.
The "Good Samaritan" of the Parable in Luke 10 shares New Testament fame with another Samaritan, a woman of John 4. She was apparently of less importance than the good Samaritan of the Parable. If I have called her "good" it is because of what is associated with her through conversation with Jesus at Jacob's well, rather than because of any merit in her.

As a matter of fact she wasn't a woman of good reputation. She had had five husbands and was living with a man who was not her husband. Jesus made it plain that He knew all about her.

We do not know the upshot of the story or whether the woman like another woman "which was a sinner" Luke 7:36-47, experienced a change in heart and life.

But Jesus must have seen some good in that woman or He would hardly have spent so much time in conversation with her.

The story, which occupies the major part of John 4, as I see it, emphasizes these things:

1. The humanity of Jesus and His unconventional, with His complete freedom from the prejudices of race and religion—that in our own time have been all too evident in many of His professed followers.

2. The realism of Jesus in disregarding the limiting customs and manners of the time. It was not only against usage for a man to be conversing thus with a woman in a public place, but when the woman was a Samaritan and of none too savory life, it made the matter even more contrary to all convention.

It was no wonder that the disciples as they returned from the city, "Marveled" (John 4:27). A modern minister might well have feared for his reputation in a similar encounter. Jesus had no fear of "what people will say" where goodness and human values were involved.

3. The great words concerning worship (John 4:23, 24) that came out of the conversation and that have given that conversation supreme importance.

4. The acknowledgement by Jesus of His messiahship "I that speak unto you am he."

5. Finally, the woman's witness and the fact that many believed in Jesus, not only because of her witness, but because they had found Him for themselves. (John 4:39-42).

In every respect, in the facts and details as well as in the telling, it is a remarkable story, and it is well that the Gospel of John adds so much to the incidents in the three former Gospels.

Jr. Musical Coterie Meets

The Junior Musical Coterie met on Monday afternoon in the home of Mary Adalyn Yancey with Rita Warren co-hostess for the January meeting.

The president, Mary Adalyn Yancey, conducted the business. The program topic for the afternoon was "Poetic Thoughts Expressed in Music."

Piano solos were played by Nancy Guley, Dolores Escarre, and Amelia Harrell. Rita Warren sang a solo accompanied by Mary Yancey at the piano.

There were 17 members present and Jean Cunningham was welcomed as a new member.

The next meeting will be in the home of Joan and Marion Buchanan.

Cookies and cold drinks were served during the social hour.

Mrs. Richard Cook Feted

Mrs. Howard Graham feted Mrs. Richard Cook, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower at her home on Monday evening.

Interesting bridal games were played after which Mrs. Cook was presented her lovely and useful gifts in a container decorated in white.

After the gifts were displayed the fifteen guests were invited into the dining room where the table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a horn of plenty filled with fruit. Mrs. Wells Hamby presided at the punch bowl. The cake was served by Mrs. Ray Woolley.

Mrs. Harry Moore C. W. F. President

The Christian Women's Fellowship met on Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fannie Newth with 17 members present.

The opening song was "I'll Go

Where You Want Me To Go," followed by a poem read by Mrs. Harry Moore.

Mrs. John Mauldin presented the program topic on "Benevolence" and gave the devotional from James 1-17. She also gave an article on "Missionary Work in India."

Mrs. Dennis Ledbetter led in prayer and the song "I Need Thee Every Hour" was sung.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected: Mrs. Harry Moore, President; Mrs. John Mauldin, vice president; Mrs. Dennis Ledbetter, treasurer; Mrs. C. O. Waplington, secretary.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Mildred Dawson and Mrs. J. W. Bradley.

Mrs. John Vesey of Hope was the guest Monday of Mrs. O. G. Hirst.

Mrs. Doug Burley has returned to her home in Houston, Texas after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison McClelland.

Thurman Haynie who is employed in Fort Worth, Texas, has been visiting his family.

Mrs. Velma Martin is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ray L. Gray and Mr. Gray in South Gate, Calif.

Sgt. and Mrs. James Long of Camp Polk, La. are the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cavanah and little daughter left this week for Magnolia to make their home.

Wants to Quit Competition With Marilyn

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mamie Van Dorea, a blonde bundle of sex, wants to resign as her studio's answer to Marilyn Monroe.

"The comparison to Marilyn was okay at the beginning of my career," says Mamie. "The publicity helped draw attention to me. But now I don't want to be the answer to anybody. I want to stand on my own feet."

The resemblance between the two girls is considerable. Both are blondes with Petty-girl faces and curvaceous figures. Both exude a sexiness in appearance and conversation. They can drop quotes that send interviewers scurrying to their typewriters.

"But we're not really alike," Mamie protests. "My hair is silver blonde, almost platinum; Marilyn's is more golden blonde. She is a much bigger girl too."

She did admit that their tastes in men are similar. Marilyn's heart belongs to Joe DiMaggio. Mamie used to go with another sports figure with the initials J. D.—Jack Dempsey.

"We broke up," Mamie explained. "He was a little bit too old for me. Or maybe I was too young for him." Her current boyfriend is another sportsman. He is Bill Stead, Reno rancher and speedboat racer.

Other similarities between the two girls: both were discovered for the movies from the Bliss-Hayden Little Theater here; both bear adopted names. Marilyn's is really Norma Jean Baker. Mamie's is Joan Lucille Olander. She got the business career.

Before compasses were placed on a lot, they were floated in a bowl of liquid.

Mamie shortly after the presidential election of 1952.

Aside from these factors, the girls are dissimilar. Marilyn is a native Californian. Mamie is a native Arkansan.

Her parents brought her here during the war and she attended Los Angeles High School. After a brief stint as a lawyer's secretary, she decided that she had the assets for a show business career.

Trial of Bank Officials to Be Renewed

ASHDOWN (AP) Prosecutor R. Coker Thomas says he will renew next summer his attempts, which have twice failed, to convict two former officials in a $185,000 shortage at the now defunct Bank of Dierks.

Thomas yesterday requested and received dismissal of a charge of misapplication of bank funds against Thomas F. Westbrook 75-year-old former vice president and cashier of the bank.

A Little River Circuit Court jury Tuesday freed Mrs. Opal Simington, 47, of a forgery charge. She had been with the bank 32 years and was assistant cashier when the shortage was discovered in 1952.

Thomas said he intended to try the defendants on all counts still pending—22 against Mrs. Simington and 21 against Westbrook.

The fact that it would be impossible to select new juries during this term would force postponement of the new trials until the July term of circuit court, Thomas said.

Thomas yesterday morning failed to have admitted as evidence two of three documents he presented to the court. Only two prosecution witnesses had been heard when the prosecutor asked for and got the dismissal.

Camden Woman Dies in Fire

CAMDEN (UP)—Mrs. John W. Newton, 42, member of a well-known family here, was burned to death last night in the fire that destroyed her home.

Mrs. Newton's husband, former Ouachita County treasurer, was all in the hospital at the time of the fire.

The woman's charred body was found just inside the living room of her home. The front door had fallen on her, and firemen said she apparently was trying to escape from the house when the door crashed down on her.

Newton is an oil operator here who had been in the hospital several days. Neighbors at first thought his wife was visiting him at the hospital when the fire broke out.

Mrs. Newton is survived by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Ellis and several brothers. In addition to her husband, Mrs. Newton has a son.

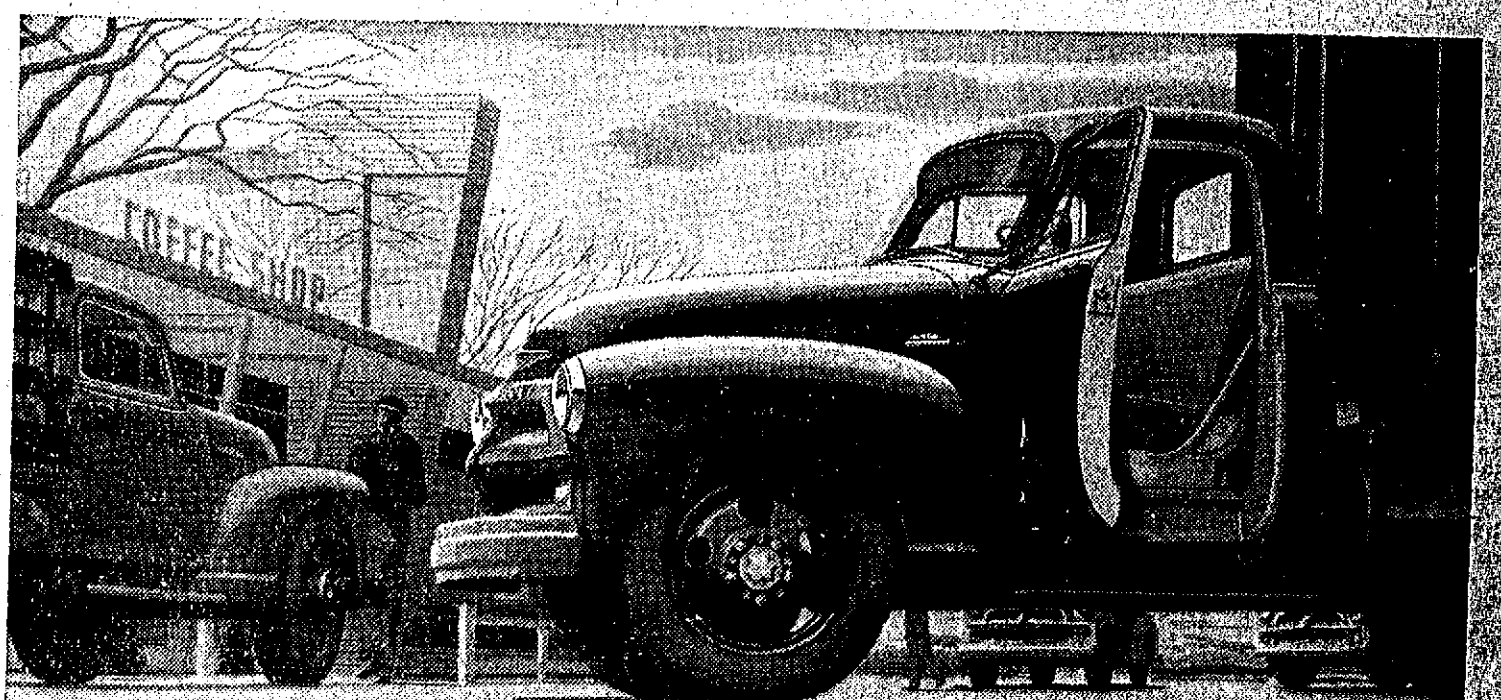

Before compasses were placed on a lot, they were floated in a bowl of liquid.

Mamie shortly after the presidential election of 1952.

Aside from these factors, the girls are dissimilar. Marilyn is a native Californian. Mamie is a native Arkansan.

ARKANSAS Sportettes

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chances are that Bowden Wyatt right now is at the crossroads of success and failure as head football coach at the University of Arkansas.

This is talent roundup time in college football—that period between the fall playing seasons and spring practice when coaches are scouting around for the top high school seniors. And Wyatt needs another bumper crop of freshmen glidders next fall to promise winning varsity team in 1956 and 57—
 the last two seasons in his current five-year contract at Arkansas.

The promising bunch of boys he has coming up from last year's yearly quad will be seniors in 1956. The youngsters he brings in next September will be juniors that year and seniors in '57.
 Bear in mind that the success or failure about which we've been talking is success or failure in the won-lost columns. University officials, including President John T.
 Caldwell, are quite happy with the straight forward, hard working Wyatt, and no one has told him he has to win to keep his job. In fact, no one tells Bowden to do anything—and that goes for the monied boosters who can give coaches such awful headaches. Mr.
 Wyatt, in a nice, polite way, is the boss of Razorback football.
 After all, that's what he's paid to be.

Anyway, qualified observers felt Wyatt was successful last year—
 not because he won three of 10
 games but because he put spirit into his athletes commanded their full respect and taught them how to be students and men as well
 as how to block and tackle.

Wyatt will call his Razorbacks
 together for spring practice March 3—Ozark mountain weather permitting.

Just how much spring practice will mean is problematical. The sophomores will learn much they need to know; holdovers from last fall should improve and Wyatt will experiment with some players at new positions.

But it isn't likely that the spring
 drills will give any accurate line
 on how the Porkers will stack up next fall. Wyatt is hopeful of bringing in several junior college transfers next September, and, while they won't have the benefit of spring practice, some of them may make the first two teams. Little Bobby Proctor came in from a Mississippi Junior College last summer and very quickly grabbed a starting assignment at a big man's position—blocking back.

Too often, of course, junior college stars lose a lot of their glitter
 when they step into faster companies.

Gen. Wyatt is in the same boat with Royce. He is having to rebuild the Arkansas basketball team, suffering with some of his inherited material while bringing up new prospects.

Big Glen rounded up the best of the state's high school roundballers of last year. Put together as a freshman team, they are a losing outfit.

Some of the individual fresh expected to be top are disappointing; others are living up to expectations.

"I don't particularly care whether the freshmen win a lot of games," says Rose. "Just so we get two or three good varsity boys
 off the freshman team each year
 I'll be happy."

A big portion of the current Porker varsity will graduate this spring. Which means Rose will have more scholarships to pass
 out to this season's high school seniors. The problem is whether there'll be enough of these who are the kind Rose needs.

Cards Have Two Salary Problems

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The St. Louis Cardinals in the midst of a rebuilding program,
 still have two big salary problems Red Schoendienst and Harvey Haddix to tackle before they can go full speed ahead with their plans for 1954.

Schoendienst, runner-up to National League Batting Champion Carl Furillo last season and Had-dix, a 20-game winner, are far from satisfied with the contracts
 they've been tendered for the upcoming campaign.

"We've had some talks with Schoendienst," August A. Busch,
 Cardinal prey, said yesterday,
 "but as the moment we are not quite together."

Both Schoendienst and Haddix
 are reportedly asking $10,000 more than they received in 1953. Red is said to have received $35,000 last season and Haddix $8,000.

The Spartanburg, S. C., pro came through with 35, three under par, on the home nine to give her a par 75 for the trickey, 6,093-yards
 Par 3 Celia course.

Bunched behind her were Babe Zaharias of Tampa, who has won the tournament twice; Polly Riley,
 another former winner, from Fort Worth, Tex., and Jackie Pung, Honolulu.

Mrs. Zaharias and Miss Riley,
 the top amateurs, played along steadily, the former hitting 38-39 and the latter 39-39.

Mrs. Pung had a good round going out, par 37, and was doing well on the way back until she hit 7 for the par 5 hole.

Louise Suggs, the little Georgian who is still the favorite to make this her third Tampa Open victory in a row, also had troubles on the back nine.

After a brilliant first nine 38, everything went wrong and she trudged home with 43 and a total of 70. That put her in the tie for ninth with Betty Dodd of Tampa.

 Rindone.

In his first fight since winning the title from Randy Turpin of Britain last October, Olson will be facing a man who has a reputation as a rugged, aggressive puncher.

However, Olson is a heavy favorite, to outpunch the Roxbury Mass., fighter as a tuneup for his April 2 title defense with Kid Gavlan in Chicago.

Proceeds go to a boys club. The bout will be nationally telecast at

Two More File
 for Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two more candidates filed today for nomination to public office in next summer's democratic primaries.

State Sen. Fred H. Stafford of Marked Tree, who is seeking re-nomination in the 24th senatorial district, filed for position No. 3.
 He is also seeking re-nomination in the 24th senatorial district, which includes Craighead, Mississippi and Poinsett counties.

L. D. Blair of Paris filed for the prosecuting attorney's position in the 15th judicial district, which covers Franklin, Logan and Crayford counties. The position now is held by Jack Tate of Osage.

Canadian Grid Deal May Bring Legal Action

By FRED WALTERS

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — United States and Canadian professional football executives primed their checkbooks and mustered their legal forces today in an all-out war
 over football talent.

The feud over Canadian forays
 into American football player pools has blown hot and cold for several years.

It was announced that Arnie Weinmeister of the New York Giants, one of the NFL's all-time top tacklers, had signed a two-year contract with the new British Columbia Lions.

The 6-foot, 423 pound lineman no longer has a contract with the Giants, but the club still holds an option on his services for 1954.

Commissioner Bert Bell of the NFL promptly declared, "The war is on" between the U.S. and Canadian pro leagues.

He indicated the NFL might reverse the normal procedure and raid Canadian player resources.

"They had better start counting their players," he said. "We have a list of all Canadian players, some of whom could make some of our teams. We'll go after them if they go after our boys."

Meanwhile, Grant's President
 John A. Mara threatened legal action for breach of contract against Weinmeister.

Mara said the Giants had already notified Weinmeister of their intention to exercise their option of his services.

In Vancouver, B. C., Lions' Coach
 Annis Stukus said the club feels it has "fulfilled" all obligations concerning the Giants.

"He told them at the close of the season that he would not be back and that he was retiring from the National Football League Stukus,
 said.

he offer that drew winners
 to Canada was not disclosed
 but a club official said the Giant lineman would be "one of the highest-paid players ever to play in Canada."

At Seattle Weinmeister also said he believes he was within his legal rights in signing with Vancouver.

"I did not violate any contract with the Giants," he said. "There was no misunderstanding. They knew 1953 was my last year with them. Attorneys have told me I'm perfectly free to go ahead with my contract with Vancouver even without the letters I have from the Giants' management. In his opinion, the option which the Giants hold on me for 1954 is not legally binding."

Weinmeister follows an impressive list of American college and pro players who have found the lure of Canadian football more attractive than the NFL.

Green Light
 for Berlin
 Conference

BERLIN (AP) — The Big Four
 foreign ministers got a final green light today from the arrangements committee for their historic conference opening here Monday.

Technical experts of the four nations — The United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France
 — announced they have reached
 "basic agreement on the questions of administration, security, communications and the press."

"The remaining details will be resolved by direct consultation between the individual experts concerned," a communique added.

The experts' statement added, "completed their discussions on all principal arrangements" yesterday at their third meeting in U. S. headquarters in West Berlin.

They were delegated to work out the technical details for the conference after the Big Four com-mandants in Berlin agreed last weekend on sites for the four nations' diplomatic chiefs since their 1949 meeting in Paris.

Under the agreement last weekend, the four — U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden, French Foreign Minister Bidault and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov — will meet all next week at the former Allied Control Administration headquarters in the American sector of
 West Berlin.

The week after they meet at the Soviet Embassy in East Germany.
 The third week of conferring will be back in the ACA building, with meetings "after that to 'depend upon the course of the conference."

 The Christian Church of Hope practices Christian Liberty and extend to all the right of individual inter-teration of the Holy Bible as illuminated by the Holy Spirit. . . . As an agency of Evangelism and Christ warm welcome to whoever will, fan Nature this Church extends. "Come with us, and will do thee good." In the spirit of Christ our Savior, we seek to co-operate with all of our sister Churches in our community, so that we bring not the name of Christ into disrepute toward every, strife and jealousy. This first month of the new year our people dedicate themselves to a more Christian Hope. Let us work together for the good of all.

CHRISTIANITY IS THE ROAD to the solution of the perplexing problems of the hour.

THE CHURCH and their messages are the guide posts on this road.

THE PUBLIC SPIRITED FIRMS listed on this page urge church support and attendance — this working toward a greater and more spiritual community in which to live and rear our families.

... means a joint interest. But in family life it means more than that. It means planning together, working together, going together and doing together...

It means sharing the finer things of life. The husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. The wife is to be devoted to her husband as the church to Christ. It takes more than thrills in courtship to avoid spills in marriage. Be he governor or gravel shoveller, he is happiest who finds his happiness in his home and in his church. This is proof of a truly great partnership.
